Description / Comments

CYCLONE has been designed to become the collective vessel of Sailing Schools of the immediate future. With enough capacity for 12 people, it has become the most profitable option on the market, in perfect balance between weight and performance parameters. Idonea for teaching with the option of the folding suitcase, you are able to extract your maximum nerve by combining your great genaker and the fixed orce suitcase with bulb. The diaphanous deck without a stern mirror, thus fosters its self-sufficient capacity, the flexibility of distribution of the 12 crew members, as well as the possibility of providing it with the necessary accessories for disabled users. Despite being conceived for regatta and vocational education, it is fully compatible with the use in summer schools and the enjoyment of family, due to its optimized weight, the possibility of having an outboard motor and its easy access and approach by stern after the bathroom.
